Editorial

The first issue (2025) of “Kanpur Philosophers”, a peer reviewed International Journal of Multidisciplinary Approach to Research and Studies; published biannually by “New Archaeological and Geological Society” Kanpur, India, is now in the hands of our fellow academicians, research scholars, students, subscribers, friends and well-wishers. Multidisciplinarity is gradually emerging as a popular approach of research and studies. National Education Policy-2020 emphasize Multidisciplinary and Holistic viewpoint as a corner stone of our curriculum processes and its futuristic goals in a broader perspective. The Multidisciplinary approach to research and studies of “Kanpur Philosophers” always promoted this idea, since its inception in 2014. I sincerely hope and expect that “Kanpur Philosophers” will remain be a collective space for researchers and experts of different academic disciplines and research streams to present their research findings to the fellow community of academia at large, liberally.

The present volume of “Kanpur Philosophers” with 23 selected papers and articles representing 4 different disciplinary areas and subjects i.e. Philosophy, Political Science, Law, Language and Literature, asserting and attesting the very nature of the journal. The papers selected for this volume representing Professors and scholars from Sikkim to Delhi and indicating the trust and faith, this journal achieved among academic community all these years. There are few interesting papers in this volume need some attention of researchers including the Proceedings of 100 years of Electoral Democracy in India: Issues, Problems and challenges organised by Faculty of Law, Maharaj Balwant Singh P.G. College Varanasi. The Seminar was sponsored by Department of higher Education, Government of Uttar Pradesh.

I hope the kaleidoscope of papers may open avenues and develop insights among researchers for further exploration and study. I appreciate the scholarship of all contributors of this present volume of “Kanpur Philosophers” and thanking them for the timely submission of papers. I am looking forward for your precious observations and suggestions, and it will surely motivate us for further refinement of the journal.

I am indebted especially from Prof. Akhtar Hussain Sandhu from Lahore, Pakistan and Prof. Purushottam Singh from Varanasi, for their constant help in editing. I am thankful to the valuable contribution made by my friends and colleague Prof. Adesh Gupta from Kanpur, Dr. Balaji Chirade from Nanded as well as Dr. Kuljit Singh from Bhaderwah.
