Editorial

I am happy to present the Autumn issue of “Kanpur Philosophers”, an International Journal of Humanities, Arts, Culture, Modernity and other allied disciplines, published biannually in English, Hindi and Sanskrit languages by “New Archaeological and Genological Society”, Kanpur, in your hand. The main aim of this journal is to provide an open space for a wider range of idea shearing among the researchers and practitioners of various disciplines. Inter-disciplinary and Intra-disciplinary researches are the reality of time and gradually increasing its presence not only in pure sciences but in social sciences too. Advancement of information technology and internet recourses is fuelling this trend. Such an open and easy access to information’s and their quick shearing across the globe were never been happened in past, which leads to more objective and resourcefulness of researchers in the process of enquiry. Rigid disciplinary explanations are no more considered to be the final answers to the complexities of human or natural phenomenon. I hope this Journal will provide a stage to shearing ideas and help encouraging interdisciplinary researches.

I would like to thanks all the researchers and contributors of the current issue of Kanpur Philosophers for their timely submission of papers and their continuous support, without which such Endeavour cannot take shape. Papers appeared in this issue represents variety of disciplines i.e. philosophy, history, education, geography, law and literature. Researchers may develop insight to explore interdisciplinary areas of research within the periphery of their respective subjects and enrich the corpus of research literature for future works. Numbers of book reviews are required to increase, as there is only one book review found suitable for publication.

I am indebted especially from my friend Dr. Akhtar Hussain Sandhu from Lahore, Pakistan and Er. Vasudev Singh from Houston, U.S.A. Their regular follow up helped in many ways to sorted out various issues. I am thankful to my friends Dr. Purushottam Singh and Mrs. Neha Singh both from Kanpur, for their continuous help during the course of editing. Their interest in History and its content always proved to be encouraging. I am thankful to the valuable contribution made by my friend and colleague Dr. Adesh Gupta from Banda. His dedication to the cause is matchless. I am also thankful to Dr. Balaji Chirade from Nanded and Dr. Kuljit Singh from Jammu University, for their continuous guidance and mentorship.

Your valuable observations are suggestions are most welcome.
