Editorial

Winter issue 2015 of “Kanpur Philosophers”, is in your hand, a comparatively large volume this time. Papers appeared in this issue represents variety of disciplines i.e. Philosophy, History, Political Science, Education, Geography and Literature covering the geographical expansion from Kasur in Pakistan to Malda in West Bengal. Though the papers included in this volume are mostly focused on various aspects of Kanpur and Banda district of Uttar Pradesh.

It will be interesting to know how Caste, which is an accepted characteristic of Hindu society, is playing an important role in Pakistani politics with reference of Ansaris. One paper studying the Madrassa education in the present Indian context and another paper explore the early Islamic Architecture of Bengal.

Seven papers are specially throwing light on the history of freedom struggle, communist party, communalism, commercial activities, industrial development, higher technical and medical education, and spiritual, social and intellectual renaissance in Kanpur. One paper from Tamilnadu is based on tribal studies.

Three papers are covering the various aspects of the history of Bundelkhand. One paper each on women saint tradition of Rajasthan and Shri Madbhagwat Geeta included. A sole paper of geography focused on soil erosion with reference to Unnao district. Four book reviews are also added to this volume.

I would like to thanks all the researchers and contributors of the current issue of Kanpur Philosophers for their timely submission of papers and their continuous support, without which such endeavour cannot take shape.

I am indebted especially from Dr. Akhtar Hussain Sandhu from Lahore, Pakistan and Dr. Purushottam Singh and Mrs. Neha Singh both from Kanpur, for their continuous help during the course of editing. I am thankful to the valuable contribution made by my friends Dr. Kuljit Singh from Jammu University as well as Dr. Balaji Chirde from Nanded Maharashtra with my colleague Dr. Adesh Gupta from Banda.

Your valuable observations are suggestions are most welcome.
