Editorial

Summer issue (2017) of “Kanpur Philosophers”, is in your hand, a comparatively large volume this time. Papers appeared in this issue represents variety of disciplines i.e. Philosophy, History, Political Science, Law, Education, and Literature covering the geographical expansion from Kashmir in India to Baroda in Gujrat. Though the papers included in this volume are mostly focused on various aspects of Kanpur and Banda district of Uttar Pradesh.

Nine papers are specially throwing light on the history of freedom struggle, communalism, missionary activities, industrial development, higher and primary education, and spiritual, social and intellectual renaissance in Kanpur.

Three papers are covering the various aspects of the history of Bundelkhand. One paper each on classical Sanskrit literature. Two sole papers of History are focused on freedom struggle with reference to Bundelkhand.

I would like to thanks all the researchers and contributors of the current issue of Kanpur Philosophers for their timely submission of papers and their continuous support, without which such endeavour cannot take shape.
